

On 19 April 2025, I'm going to the cinema at Firstsite.

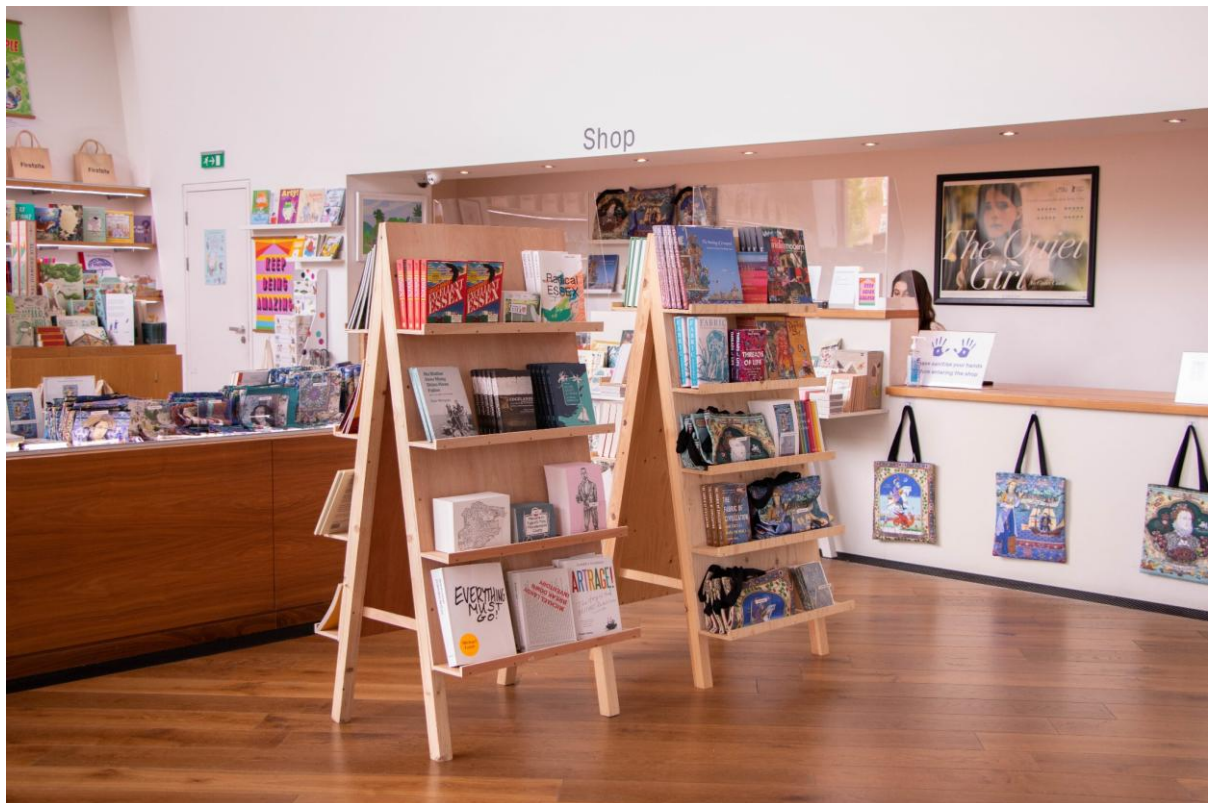

I will need to go through the Firstsite main entrance.

When I go into the building there will be a big sculpture of a man.

On my left will be the Firstsite Shop.

When I get to the reception, I will need to get a ticket, or show my ticket that I've booked online.

At the Firstsite Welcome Desk, I can choose from a selection of sensory objects to take into the cinema with me.

Ear defenders are also available to borrow for the duration of the film.

These must be handed back to the Firstsite Welcome Desk after I have finished using them.

I can follow the curve of the building where there is the cinema, toilets, Café and gallery spaces.

The first toilets I will come across are either side of the blue curved cinema.

There are more toilets further along the building and in the café.

The cinema is a large blue building on my left.
I will need to walk down the corridor to get to the cinema entrance.

I will go through this door to get to the cinema.
I may have to queue. I will need to show the usher my ticket that I have printed at home or show my ticket on a phone.

I will go into the cinema to watch the film.

I will need to find my seat and sit down.

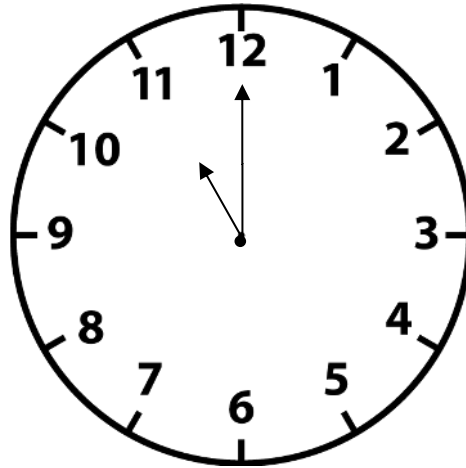

Once I have found my seat I will watch the film.

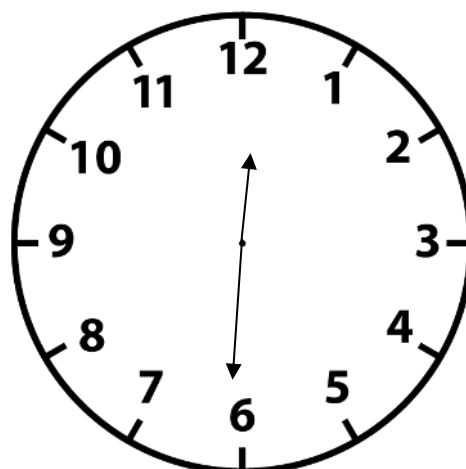

If I want to, I can move and sit in a different seat within my allocated bubble.

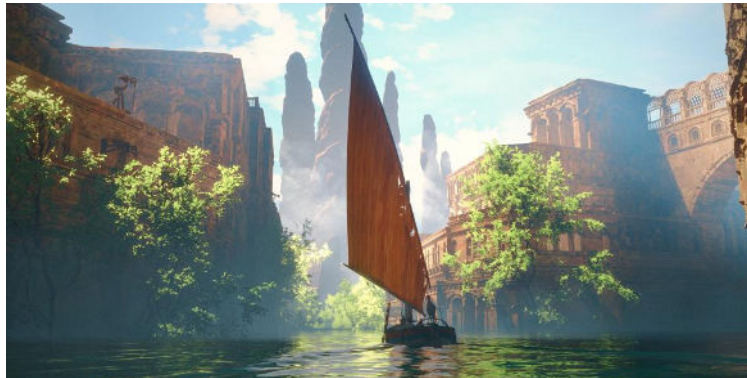

I can go into the cinema at 11:00am and start watching the film.

The film will finish at 12:30 pm and I will leave the cinema.

Flow

When a flood of biblical proportions washes its home away, a solitary cat must seek refuge with a motley crew of animals, who gradually learn to go with the Flow in this endearing, Oscar-winning animation.

The story begins following a small, solitary cat as the shoreline rises and the home where it once lived is submerged underwater.

Forced to flee, he happens upon a refuge boat containing a calm and unperturbed Cabyarre who seems amenable to his presence, and the two begin a journey on the water towards higher ground.

Along the way they cross paths with a lemur, obsessed with collecting shiny objects, a boisterous and excitable dog and a stoic, mysterious secretary bird.

Together, as they traverse the landscape on their fable-like quest, the ragtag team of animals must learn to trust each other and work together to survive.
